

Score	Description
3	Students completed a 3-minute presentation that was well researched and included at least one example of how human activities impact the biosphere. Student included relevant history, vocabulary, facts, data, and visual aids necessary to explain their example.
2	Students completed a presentation that was well researched and included at least one example of how human activities impact the biosphere but was not 3 minutes in length. Student included relevant history, vocabulary, facts, data, and visual aids necessary to explain their example.
1	Students completed a presentation that included at least one example of how human activities impact the biosphere but was not well researched and not 3 minutes in length. Student did not include relevant history, vocabulary, facts, data, and visual aids necessary to explain their example.
0	Students did not complete a presentation that included at least one example of how human activities impact the biosphere. Student did not include relevant history, vocabulary, facts, data, and visual aids necessary to explain their example.