

Rubric

Score	Description
3	Student contributed to an accurate, useful segment of the class report. The information is thoroughly developed, well organized, and grammatically correct. Citations are included, and opinions are supported by facts and logical reasoning.
2	Student contributed to a reasonably accurate and useful segment of the class report. The information may be somewhat limited or written with noticeable grammatical errors. Citations may or may not have been included. Opinions might not be supported by facts or logical reasoning.
1	Student contributed only minimally to the class report. The student's writing may include many scientific or grammatical errors, or may not address the assigned topic. Citations are minimal or absent, and opinions are rudimentary and unsupported.
0	Students did not contribute to the class report, or the student was disruptive.