

Rubric

Score	Description
3	Student contributed to an accurate, useful segment of the class report. The segment included appropriate illustrations or graphics, was written intelligibly with only minimal grammatical errors, and included citations of reference sources.
2	Student contributed to a reasonably accurate and useful segment of the class report. The segment may present limited information or be written with noticeable grammatical errors. Citations may or may not have been included.
1	Student contributed only minimally to the class report. The segment may include many scientific or grammatical errors, or may not address an appropriate topic.
0	Students did not contribute to the class report, or the student was disruptive.